

The Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies Geneva, Switzerland

and

Geneva University Law Faculty

are seeking to recruit a

POSTDOCTORAL RESEARCH FELLOW 80%-100% IN

INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION and INTERNATIONAL DISPUTE SETTLEMENT

Starting on 1 March 2011, initially for a period of six months, extendable depending on funding.

The Postdoctoral Research Fellow's main activities will include:

- Research on international arbitration and international dispute settlement in general
- Assistance in the drafting of research grant applications and fundraising in the same fields
- Assistance in the creation of a research center in international dispute settlement

Candidates must have a PhD in law in the field of international dispute settlement, near-native fluency in English and outstanding drafting skills. Experience in drafting successful grant applications, in other forms of fundraising, and in institution-building are assets.

Compensation depending on experience and qualifications.

Applications, including a CV, a cover letter, the names of two academic referees, three publications and a short description of current research projects, must reach Dr Thomas Schultz, Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies, Villa Moynier, 120b rue de Lausanne, POBox 67, 1211 Geneva 21, Switzerland, email: Thomas.schultz@graduateinstitute.ch, by 6 February 2011.

Further information on the research environment and orientation, on prior work carried out in the field at Geneva Law Faculty and the Graduate Institute, and on employment conditions may be obtained from Dr Schultz and from the following websites:

- Geneva Master in International Dispute Settlement (MIDS): <http://www.mids.ch>
- Journal of International Dispute Settlement (JIDS): <http://jids.oxfordjournals.org>